APPENDIX TO THE JOURNAL.

Vol. II. 1903-1904.

APPENDIX No. 1.

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR,

Philadelphia, September 28th, 1903.

To the Presidents and Members of the Select and
• Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—I have had brought to my attention the fact that the British steamship Bermuda was sunk in the Delaware river on August 15th, 1900, in the dock immediately south of Pier No. 19, North. Being inside of the Port Warden's line, the United States Government does not have any jurisdiction over it, and the Board of Port Wardens seems to be without a remedy.

There seems to have been some futile attempt to raise the sunken steamship a little over two years ago, but as far as I can ascertain, nothing has been done within the past two years.

There is no doubt that it is part of the duty of the City of Philadelphia to keep open and free the navigable waters within its bounds and that are not within the jurisdiction of the United States.

I would, therefore, suggest that you make an appropriation as early as possible to have this obstruction removed.

Respectfully,

JOHN WEAVER,

Mayor.

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR,

Philadelphia, November 19th, 1903.

To the Presidents and Members of the Select and
Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—I have the honor to transmit herewith a letter from the President of the Commission to Erect Monument on the Battlefield of Germantown. The commission desire to erect this monument commemorative of the battle of Germantown, in Vernon Park.

Germantown is rapidly building up. Wherever streets are laid out and houses erected they obliterate to a very great extent the old landmarks, and I think there is nothing so helpful to the patriotism of the country as to mark its battlefields with monuments and show to the coming generations where their forefathers fought and bled in the cause of liberty.

May I ask that your Honorable Bodies pass a resolution authorizing the commission to erect the monument that they propose in Vernon Park.

Yours very truly,

JOHN WEAVER,
Mayor.

battle of Germantown, and in which conversation I suggested that the commission desired to erect a monument in Vernon Park, to which you assented, I have the honor now, in the name of the commission, to ask that the formalities necessary to legally authorize the commission to place the monument in Vernon Park be furnished to it at the earliest date practicable.

The course to be pursued in accomplishing this, the commission feel, you are more familiar with than it is, and that you fully understand how necessary a formal authorization is in this instance.

APPENDIX No. 51.

DEPARTMENT OF LAW,

Philadelphia, November 11th, 1903.

WILLIAM J. MILLIGAN, Esq.,

Chief Clerk of Select Council.

DEAR SIR:—Your communication of the 6th inst., requesting my opinion as to the legality of an ordinance entitled "An Ordinance to relieve the property of the Garretson Hospital of Philadelphia, situate on Hamilton street, one hundred and ninety-six feet east of Nineteenth street, and at the southwest corner of Eighteenth and Buttonwood streets, from the payment of past and future taxes, and directing that all liens for taxes filed against said property, from and including the year 1897, be satisfied of record," is received.

In so far as the ordinance exempts the Garretson Hospital of Philadelphia from future taxes it is not valid, as Councils have no power to exempt property from taxation. Article IX, Section 1, of the Constitution of 1874, provides as follows: "All taxes shall be uniform upon the same class of subjects, within the territorial limits of the authority levying the tax, and shall be levied and collected under general laws; but the General Assembly may by general laws exempt from taxation public property used for public purposes, actual places of religious worship, places of burial not used or held for private or corporate profit, and institutions of purely public charity." In accordance with this provision of the Constitution, the Legislature did, by Act of May 14th, 1874, designate the classes of properties to be exempt from taxation, which were public property used for public purposes, actual places of religious worship, places of burial not used or held for private or corporate profit, and institutions of purely public charity. If the Garretson Hospital be included in any of the classes of property thus designated, it is by virtue of such designation already exempt from taxation, and therefore an ordinance exempting it therefrom would have no legal effect. The Board of Revision of Taxes alone can determine in the first instance what property is exempt from taxation, and if that board has assessed the said hospital, the latter may, by proper legal proceedings, have the action of the board reviewed.

So far as the ordinance directs the satisfaction of the liens already filed, it is within the power of Councils to give such direction to the City Solicitor. When, however, an ordinance to that effect is enacted, it is to be presumed that the taxes due to the City of Philadelphia have been paid or adjusted to the satisfaction of Councils, since the liens should not be satisfied until the payment of the taxes, otherwise the effect of the ordinance would be to bestow a mere gratuity upon the owner of the property taxed, without any return to the city.

Yours very truly,

JOHN L. KINSEY,

City Solicitor.

APPENDIX No. 95.

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR,

Philadelphia, February 18th, 1904.

To the Presidents and Members of the Select and
Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—I have returned to your Honorable Bodies to-day, without my approval, an ordinance entitled “An Ordinance to strike from the City Plan Hamilton street, from Sixteenth street to Seventeenth street.”

I have received in connection with this ordinance, or in reference to a prior ordinance introduced a year and a half ago for the same purpose (and from the information that has been brought to me I am not quite sure whether this is the original ordinance or a second ordinance) a letter dated February 15th, 1904, from William Sellers, Esquire, who is President of the William Sellers Company, for whose benefit the ordinance was introduced and passed, the said letter referring to Alexander Crow, Jr., Esquire, a member of the upper branch of your Honorable Bodies, and to Walton Pennewill, Esquire, a member of the lower branch of your Honorable Bodies. I have also received a letter from Alexander Crow, Jr., Esquire, dated February 17th, 1904, and a letter from Walton Pennewill, Esquire, dated February 17th, 1904, relating to the same subject matter, all of which I attach to this message.

I send these letters to you because they have reference to two of your members and it is a matter that you will doubtless desire to investigate. I cannot express myself too strongly upon the subject of all legislative bodies avoiding not only actual evil but even the appearance of evil.

Yours respectfully,

JOHN WEAVER,

Mayor.

WILLIAM SELLERS & Co., Incorporated.

1600 Hamilton Street.

Philadelphia, February 15th, 1904.

MR. JOHN WEAVER,
City Hall, Philadelphia.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:—Acknowledging your note of the 13th inst., I beg to state in writing, all that I could say in person, viz.: That some time in the summer of 1902 I called upon Mr. Crow with reference to vacating Hamilton street, between Sixteenth and Seventeenth streets. He thought it could be done, but that it would cost a good deal of money, and that I would need to employ a good lawyer to attend to it. He recommended Mr. Walton Pennewill, and I subsequently called upon him. He took the same view of the matter as Mr. Crow, and in the course of our conversation he named the sum of $36,000 as what I might regard as the probable cost to me, that he could not undertake to act as my counsel while he was a member of Council, but that if we agreed upon the terms he would resign from Council and give the case his personal attention. I represented that I could not accept his proposal without first consulting my business associates. I called upon Mr. Crow soon after, and stated that such a sum could not mean a lawyer's fee, and we could not consider it, if the City was to receive the money I would report it to my company. He then informed me that the City could not take money for closing a street, that I knew the leaders in Council must receive money for passing such a bill and I was foolish to expect otherwise. I saw him several times afterward until I became satisfied nothing would be done, the last time when he informed me that the bill, with resolutions I had prepared, would be offered in Council, but that in his judgment it would not pass, which prediction proved to be correct.

Respectfully,

WM. SELLERS.

Philadelphia, February 17th, 1904.

HON. JOHN WEAVER,
Philadelphia, Penna.

DEAR SIR:—Pursuant to your request I make the following statement in writing: In the summer of 1902, William Sellers called to see me at my mill, stating that he desired an ordinance passed by Councils to vacate Hamilton street, between Sixteenth and Seventeenth streets, so that the works of his company might have the use of the bed of the street for private purposes. A similar ordinance vacating another portion of the street, at the instance of the Baldwin Locomotive Works, had been recently passed, notwithstanding my vigorous opposition, based upon the request and sentiment of my constituents. I told Mr. Sellers that I would support his ordinance, my reason being that if it was proper for one part of the street to be closed for the Baldwin Company it should be equally proper for another portion to be closed for his company. I deny emphatically that any suggestion was made by me or to me that any money was to be paid to me or to any one indicated by me directly or indirectly. Mr. Sellers brought me the ordinance. It was introduced in Common Council by Mr. Montgomery at my request. The ordinance was not acted upon at that session, but in 1903 it was again introduced by Mr. Montgomery in Common Council. It was referred to the Survey Committee and remained there until recently, when it was reported favorably to the Common Council. On January 28th, 1904, the ordinance was called up and an attempt was made to add a proviso to the effect that on removal by the Sellers Company of their plant, the bed of the street should revert to the City. The proviso was defeated. The ordinance then came to Select Council the same day and, on my motion, was postponed for one week in order that the proviso which had been defeated in Common Council might be incorporated into the ordinance if possible, thus attaching to the ordinance the same condition that was attached to the Baldwin Company's ordinance. At the next meeting of the Select Council the ordinance was passed in my absence with the amendment which I desired added, as I am informed.

In conclusion, I desire to say that the charges and insinuations of William Sellers, as reported in the newspapers, are absolutely without foundation of any kind so far as they relate to me or to my conduct.

Respectfully,

ALEXANDER CROW, JR.

HON. JOHN WEAVER,
Mayor.

DEAR SIR:—With reference to the statement which Mr. Sellers is reported to have made concerning me in connection with the Hamilton street ordinance, I find that what I said when the matter was first called to my attention covers everything that transpired between Mr. Sellers and myself.

The statement I made is as follows:

"Mr. Sellers visited my office in the summer of 1902. He knew that I had bitterly opposed the closing of Hamilton and Buttonwood streets. The purpose of his visit was to obtain my support for his ordinance. He told me he thought Baldwins were hostile. He thought they were selfish.

"I told him that, inasmuch as the value of the street as a thoroughfare had been virtually destroyed, I sympathized with him to some extent, and thought he was entitled to some consideration.

"He asked me if I would actively support the bill, and I told him there wasn't any one in public life who could be of less use to him than myself; that I was not in touch with the political leaders and the administration at that time, and that if I were to advocate the measure for him it would not meet with much success.

"He spoke about the street being extremely valuable to his firm, and wanted to know if I could act in the capacity of attorney. I replied that my public position precluded any such relation.

"I told him that the political conditions under the then existing administration were of such a peculiar character that, in my judgment, and in view of the pressure brought to bear to obtain the passage of the Baldwin ordinance, it would be advisable to consult some person in harmony with the administration; that I couldn't possibly be of any service.

"He said he was willing to spend some money to further the passage of the bill, but did not wish any of it used for corrupt purposes. I told him I would not support the measure if I had the slightest idea that any improper influences were to be brought to bear; that I did not believe any improper motives were back of the Baldwin ordinance, and that I did not think the expenditure would be required in his case if he could obtain the assistance of influential persons who were close to the administration.

"Mr. Sellers is mistaken in saying that any sum of money was mentioned in the interview, and what I said to him merely was in the nature of advice, which, in my judgment, was the only means by which he could obtain, at that time, favorable action upon the measure. Beyond what I have said, Mr. Sellers' repetition of the interview is without the slightest foundation in fact."

Yours truly,

WALTON PENNEWILL.

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR,

Philadelphia, February 18th, 1904.

To the Presidents and Members of the Select and
Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—Mrs. Mary J. B. Chew has offered to the City of Philadelphia, through the City Parks Association, a piece of ground in the Twenty-second Ward, bounded by Johnston street, Cliveden street, Musgrave street and Chew street, containing four acres of ground, more or less, to be used as a public park. Mrs. Chew says that she would like the park to be called Cliveden Park, as it is a portion of the Cliveden estate of the late Chief Justice Chew.

I am informed that it is partly wooded and is a very desirable piece of property for a small park, and I most earnestly recommend the acceptance of Mrs. Chew's offer and also the adoption of her suggestion that it be called Cliveden Park. If it meets with the approval of your Honorable Bodies, I would ask that an ordinance be introduced and passed, accepting the gift for the purpose above suggested.

Respectfully,

JOHN WEAVER,

Mayor.
